

TERMS OF USE

Last updated: October 20th 2024

1 General information

- 1.1 Dear passenger, these are our Terms of Use. You are a person looking to order a taxi ride from a location where one of our Devices or QR Tools is located. This can be a hotel or other venue. We are Taxi Butler BV, offering Our Services to you.
- 1.2 When certain words and phrases are used in these Terms of Use, they have specific meanings (these are known as 'defined terms' or 'definitions'). You can identify definitions because they start with capital letters, even if they are not at the start of a sentence. Where a defined term is used, it has the meaning given to it in article 2 of these Terms of Use below.
- 1.3 Our Services allow you to book a taxi ride directly with a local Transportation Provider that is connected to Our Services and in certain cases Our Services allow you to pay for the taxi ride as well.
- 1.4 These Terms of Use constitute the agreement entered into between you and us in respect of your use of Our Services, and these Terms of Use specify the terms and conditions for your access and use of Our Services, as well as set forth both your and our rights and obligations.
- 1.5 These Terms of Use apply if you use our Devices or QR Tools in the United Kingdom. In other countries, other terms and conditions may apply, as communicated to you in the booking process in the relevant location.
- 1.6 We are Taxi Butler BV, a company incorporated under the laws of the Netherlands. You can find us at Keizersgracht 169, 1016 DP Amsterdam, the Netherlands and you can reach us at support@taxibutler.com. We are registered with the trade register of the Chamber of Commerce with number 58923853 and have VAT number NL853240474B01.
- 1.7 Please also refer to the customer services section in article 12 below.

Summary of key terms:

- a) Our Services are limited to facilitating the booking and taking of taxi rides directly between you and Transportation Providers and in certain instances facilitating your payment of such taxi rides.
- b) Your agreement for the transportation service (both the booking thereof and the taking thereof) is directly with the Transportation Provider. The terms and conditions and privacy policy of the Transportation

Provider govern your legal relationship with the Transportation Provider. A link to the Transportation Provider T&C's is presented to you when you choose to make a booking by using Our Services. The booking and the taxi ride will be governed by the Transportation Provider T&C's.

- c) While we take commercially reasonable efforts to present a link to the Transportation Provider T&C's to you when you make a booking through Our Services, it is the sole obligation of the Transportation Provider to have established and implemented the applicable terms and conditions under their Transportation Provider T&C's which comply with all applicable laws, by having a complete and accurate set of documents available on that link.
- d) Depending on which of Our Services you use, after accepting the offer in the booking process you are presented with a paper ticket and/or sent an SMS text message with the booking details and a link to a mobile booking tracker website specifically for you, which allows you to manage or cancel your booking and that includes a copy of these Terms of Use, our Privacy Policy and a link to the Transportation Provider T&C's for future reference.
- e) We recommend that you keep the paper ticket and SMS text message, so you are able to contact us and the Transportation Provider with the booking reference number of your booking.
- f) Our Terms of Use and Privacy Policy are always easily electronically accessible on <https://taxibutler.com/terms> and the Transportation Provider T&C's on the website of the relevant Transportation Provider. You can find the name and contact details of the Transportation Provider for your booking in the booking process on the Device or QR Tool and in the mobile booking tracker website. You can also contact us at support@taxibutler.com to obtain a copy of these documents at no cost.
- g) To be very clear, we are not responsible for your bookings of taxi rides, as we merely facilitate the booking with the Transportation Provider. Also, we do not provide any transportation services. We take no responsibility for the provision of booking services or transportation services by the Transportation Providers or Drivers with whom you book a taxi ride.

3 Booking procedure and acceptance of offer and terms and conditions

Offer

3.1 Our Devices and QR Tools lead you through the booking process to order your taxi. Before a booking is placed with the relevant Transportation Provider, you are presented with a page with booking info, which constitutes the offer for making the booking. In case you are assisted by a member of staff of the venue where you are, this page provides an instruction to hand the Device over to you.

3.2 The offer contains the information you have provided, such as the destination and the type of vehicle you are requesting, and a break down of the estimated Total Price, with explanations as described in article 4 below so that you are well informed before making the booking. You can also find the name and contact details of the Transportation Provider for your booking by using the hamburger menu at the top left of the screen during the entire booking process.

- 3.3 The offer also informs you that these Terms of Use, our Privacy Policy and the Transportation Provider T&C's apply to the booking. You can click on hyperlinks to read these documents on the Device. The documents on the device contain a QR code that you can scan, and which guides you to a website where you can save these documents on your own device for later reference. In case you use a QR Tool, the relevant pages have a save-button you can use to save the documents on your own device for later reference. We recommend that you save a copy of these documents to your own device.
- 3.4 The booking process allows you to check and amend any errors before submitting your booking - just click on the "previous step" button on the Device or the QR Tool. Please check your booking carefully before confirming it, as once you click on the "I agree" button (and make subsequent payment in case you pay through Our Services), we will process the booking for you immediately (although you always have the option to cancel your booking). You are responsible for ensuring that your booking is complete and accurate. The booking process is available in the English language. A copy of the contract formed between you and us will be accessible for you as described below.

Accepting the offer

- 3.5 You can accept the offer by clicking on the "I agree" button. In consideration of either: (i) your payment of our Service Fee (if applicable); (ii) your promise to enter into an agreement with, and pay fees to, the Transportation Provider; and/or (iii) your other obligations under these Terms of Use, a legally binding agreement between you and us is formed. This agreement incorporates these Terms of Use and your booking is established when you click on the "I agree" button. Each booking will incorporate these Terms of Use and the booking into a new and separate agreement.
- 3.6 When you click on the "I agree" button, an agreement is also established between you and the relevant Transportation Provider. This is a direct agreement between you and the relevant Transportation Provider, to which agreement we are not a party. It is governed by the Transportation Provider T&C's that are shown in the offer, which govern both the booking and the taxi ride itself (together forming part of the Transportation Provider Service).
- 3.7 We do not provide any guarantees or accept any liability in respect of bookings with the Transportation Provider and the performance of the Transportation Provider Service by it. We are merely the agent of a Transportation Provider or Driver in respect of the services any of them may agree to provide to you through the Transportation Provider Service or otherwise. Our Services merely facilitate your connecting to Transportation Providers and Drivers in order to make bookings.
- 3.8 The booking is placed with the Transportation Provider after you click on the "I agree" button on the page of the offer, or after you have made subsequent payment as described in article 4 below, in case you choose to pay through Our Services as well.

Confirmation of booking

- 3.9 After clicking on the "I agree" button or after making payment in case you pay through Our Services, a paper ticket is printed by the Device and/ or an SMS text message is sent to your mobile phone number. The paper ticket and/or SMS text message is the confirmation of your booking.
- 3.10 The paper ticket and/or SMS text message contains a summary of your booking and a link to a mobile booking tracker website specifically for you (the link is a QR code on the paper ticket). This mobile booking tracker website contains the estimated Total Price and allows you to track and manage your booking. It also contains a copy of these Terms of Use, our Privacy Policy, and a link to the Transportation Provider T&C's. You can also find the name and contact details of the Transportation Provider for your booking by using the hamburger menu at the top left of this mobile booking tracker website.
- 3.11 We recommend that you keep the paper ticket and SMS text message so you are able to contact us and the Transportation Provider with the booking reference number of your booking.
- 3.12 The mobile booking tracker website also contains a button which allows you to cancel your booking, which automatically cancels the pre-authorisation of payment, if you have paid using Our Services. However, please note that your right to cancel your booking under UK consumer law is not applicable because these cancellation rights do not apply to passenger transport contracts.
- 3.13 Please note that all information on arrival times and trip duration that is visible in Our Services are estimates that we receive from the Transportation Provider. We have no control over and are not liable for any deviations between these estimates and the actual arrival times and trip duration.
- 3.14 These Terms of Use and our Privacy Policy are always easily electronically accessible on our website (<https://taxibutler.com/terms>) where they can be saved for future reference.

4 Prices and payment

- 4.1 The price for booking and taking a taxi ride through the use of Our Services consists of the Fare and, in certain cases, the Transportation Provider Booking Fee and/or our Service Fee. Together, these amounts are the Total Price as defined in these Terms of Use.
- 4.2 At the offer stage, the Fare is an estimate that we are informed about by the Transportation Provider, rather than a fixed price. The Transportation Provider Booking Fee and Service Fee, if applicable, may also be estimates, if these fees are dependent (or partly dependent) on the amount of the final Fare. The offer that is made to you will clearly show these price elements and explain how these are calculated, with information icons that can be opened for you to read.

- 4.3 The final Fare, and consequently also any part of the Transportation Provider Booking Fee and Service Fee that is based on the amount of the final Fare, depends on several variables, such as traffic density, the available route, changes to the destination and added stops. The final Fare is determined by the vehicle's taximeter and the applicable local (sur)charges, tolls and taxes upon completion of the ride. We do not in any way control or influence the amount of the Fare and are not liable for any deviations between the estimated Fare and the final Fare you are obliged to pay to the Transportation Provider.
- 4.4 You are informed of the estimated Total Price of your booking in the offer on the Device or in the QR Tool, as described in article 3 above. The information will specify the applicable currency. In case you accept the offer by clicking on the "I agree" button, you accept the obligation to pay the Total Price. We confirm the estimated Total Price on the mobile booking tracker website as mentioned in article 3.10 above, which you can go to by using the QR code on the printed ticket and/or clicking on the link in the SMS text message.
- 4.5 You can either pay in the car and/or pay through Our Services, depending on the location where you are and the Transportation Provider that is connected. If you pay in the car, you will pay the Total Price to the Driver in the car. The Driver or the Transportation Provider will in that case also be able to provide you with a receipt specifying the final Total Price.
- 4.6 If you pay through Our Services, you will pre-authorise us to reserve the applicable amount on your method of payment. Some payment institutions may display this pre-authorisation on your account. Funds will not be deducted from the account until the ride has been completed, but there may be a reduction in the amount of funds available to you in the meantime corresponding to the amount pre-authorised. This pre-authorisation shall be for the estimated Total Price set out in the offer and may be increased to cover average differences between estimated amounts and final amounts. If the final Total Price differs from the amount of the pre-authorisation, the exact amount will be deducted as soon as the final amount has been determined after the ride has been completed. In the event of cancellation, the pre-authorisation will be cancelled, and the amounts will be released in accordance with the operating rules of your payment institution. A cancellation fee may apply, but only if this has been communicated to you before making the booking.
- 4.7 If you choose to pay through Our Services, we can provide you with a receipt with proof of payment by email that contains the final Total Price. The booking process on the Device and QR Tool contains a button to request a receipt. You need to provide us with your email address in order to send the receipt. We do not use your email address for any other purpose than sending you the receipt or communicating with you about your request to receive a receipt. You can also request a receipt later by emailing us at accounts@taxibutler.com and referring to the booking reference you can find on the paper ticket and SMS text message.

4.8 In case you wish to receive an invoice for our Service Fee, please email us at accounts@taxibutler.com. An invoice for the Fare (and Transportation Provider Booking Fee, if applicable) can be requested from the relevant Transportation Provider. You may contact us if you have difficulty contacting the Transportation Provider (please find their contact details in the mobile booking tracker website) and we will assist you in getting in touch, but we cannot provide you with an invoice for the Fare (and Transportation Provider Booking Fee, if applicable) as it is due by you to the Transportation Provider directly and not part of our accounts.

4.9 We shall take all reasonable steps to protect your payment data, in case we process these, from unauthorised access by third parties. We use third party payment processing services to facilitate payments through Our Services. Our third-party payment processing service provider may retain payment details after the pre-authorisation payment has been made in order to complete the payment process after the taxi ride has been completed.

6.2 We reserve the right to immediately suspend your use of Our Services for any breach of the above restrictions, and to immediately terminate your use entirely for any repeated breaches or for any serious breach of these restrictions.

7 Internet and telecommunications

7.1 You agree that, when you receive an SMS text message or phone call, you may incur a cost from your own telecommunications, wireless and/or internet services company, and you agree that we have no liability for such charges and are not liable to you for any such costs.

10 Relation to Transportation Providers

- 10.1 As noted above, we are not a party to the agreement between you and the Transportation Provider or Driver. The Transportation Providers providing the Transportation Provider Service through Our Services and the Transportation Providers and Drivers providing transportation services to you are independent third parties.

We also have no control over the performance of transportation services and the level of service that is provided to you by the Transportation Provider and Driver. To the maximum extent permissible under applicable law, we are not liable for the acts, errors, omissions, representations, warranties, breaches or negligence whatsoever of any Transportation Providers or Drivers or for any personal injuries, death, property damage or other damages or expenses resulting from their services to you.

- 10.3 Despite the above, do please read the customer services clause below in article 12 as we do take efforts to help you in case of any issues you encounter with the Transportation Provider and Driver.

- 10.5 In line with the fact that we do not provide any transportation services, we have also not taken out any insurance in connection with your taxi ride, nor to insure any other passengers, third parties and/or belongings. Insurance policies of the Transportation Provider or the Drivers will be subject to their own terms and may be subject to and described by the relevant Transportation Provider T&C's.

11 Limitation of liability

- 11.1 Nothing in these Terms of Use excludes or limits our liability for: (i) death or personal injury caused by our negligence; (ii) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) any matter in respect of which it would be unlawful for us to exclude or restrict our liability.
- 11.2 Save as set out in article 11.1, if we fail to comply with these Terms of Use, breach the agreement between you and us or act unlawfully, we are responsible and liable only for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breach of these Terms of Use or our negligence. We are not responsible or liable for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if it was an obvious consequence of our breach or if it was contemplated by you and us at the time that the agreement between you and us became binding.
- 11.3 We are under a legal duty to provide you with Our Services that are in conformity with your booking (noting there are several variables and estimations to the booking process given the nature of Our Services). Nothing in these Terms of Use affects your statutory rights. Advice about your statutory rights is available from your local Citizens' Advice Bureau or Trading Standards Office (or local consumer advisory body in the UK).
- 11.4 We only supply Our Services for domestic and private use. You agree not to use the Our Services for any commercial or business purposes and (save as set out in article 11.1) we have no liability to you for any loss of profit, loss of business, business interruption, or loss of business opportunity.

- 11.8 The limitations of liability in this clause do not apply in the case of intent or deliberate recklessness on our part.
- 11.9 Nothing in these Terms of Use excludes any liability which may not be excluded under applicable mandatory law. Nothing in these Terms of Use affects your mandatory statutory rights as a consumer.

15 Personal data

15.1 We process your personal data as is necessary for the performance of Our Services to you and for compliance with our legal obligations. We do not sell your personal data to anyone. 19 Miscellaneous

19.1 Should a provision of these Terms of Use become partially or fully ineffective, the other provisions shall remain unaffected. The ineffective provision is, in such a case, considered to be replaced by a provision that is effective and differs as little as possible from the content and scope of the original provision.

- 19.2 Failure on our part to insist on performance of your obligations or to exercise any rights does not constitute a waiver of our rights.
- 19.3 Each of the clauses of these Terms of Use also applies on behalf of our directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, successors and assigns, as well as our subsidiaries, parent and sister companies and other companies that are part of our group, as well as the (legal) persons or entities, auxiliary persons, and subordinates that we engage in performing Our Services.
- 19.4 The legal relationship between you and us and your rights and obligations under these Terms of Use cannot be transferred without our prior written consent. We may, however, assign the legal relationship between you and us in connection with a merger, reorganization, acquisition or other transfer of all or substantially all of our assets or voting securities, and we may also assign these Terms of Use to any of our affiliates.
